Mustard Seed Furniture Bank Welcomes Gary Shearer as Interim Executive Director

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — The Mustard Seed Furniture Bank Board of Directors is pleased to announce Gary Shearer as Interim Executive Director while the board navigates its leadership transition plan.

The board is excited to welcome Gary “back home,” recognizing his role in helping shape the Mustard Seed Furniture Bank into the organization it is today. His knowledge of the organization, combined with his business background and community connections, will provide valuable guidance and continuity during this transition.

In his interim role, Gary will work alongside the board, staff, volunteers, and community partners to keep the Mustard Seed focused on serving families in need and strengthening the support it provides throughout the community.

The Board of Directors is thoughtfully moving forward with its leadership transition plan and will provide additional updates regarding new leadership in the coming weeks. Throughout this process, the organization remains committed to its mission and grateful for the donors, volunteers, and partners who make its work possible.

About Mustard Seed Furniture Bank

Mustard Seed Furniture Bank provides household furnishings to families and individuals as they rebuild their lives after suffering disaster, personal tragedy, or other misfortunes. Through the generosity of donors, volunteers, and community partners, Mustard Seed Furniture Bank helps transform empty houses into homes and provides hope to those facing challenging circumstances.
